SUMMARY

A motivated and detail-oriented student currently pursuing a Master's in Information Technology at Adelaide University, with a genuine eagerness to learn and contribute wherever I'm needed. Brings a foundation in project management and event coordination, along with a strong sense of teamwork, reliability, and punctuality. Quick to pick up new processes, comfortable working under pressure, and always open to feedback and guidance from more experienced team members. Looking for casual work to support my studies, and fully available for weekend shifts (Friday–Sunday).

INTERESTS

Endurance Sports: I am a dedicated triathlete (swimming, cycling, running). The discipline required for long-distance racing translates to the meticulous planning I bring to complex security audits.

Thank you for your consideration and I'm looking forward to your response.
I wish you a successful year and achieve all your business goals for 2026!
